EDUCATIONAL DREAMS: PHASE TWO

Children of Heroes Charity Fund, together with its long-standing partner The Eneida Foundation, has launched the second phase of the ‘10 Children’s Educational Dreams’ project, helping children pursue their educational goals.

As part of this new phase, children are beginning individual English lessons tailored to their level of knowledge and learning pace.
One participant has also been given the opportunity to study online at an American school. Upon successfully completing the programme, she will be eligible to receive a US high school diploma.

The project continues to create new educational opportunities, helping children overcome language barriers, develop their abilities and build the skills they need for future success.

With the support of our partners, children’s educational dreams are gradually becoming a reality.

LAUNCH OF THE CHRISTMAS PLATFORM

This year, Children of Heroes Charity Fund launched its first online platform for the Christmas campaign. Families can now register and upload their children's letters and drawings with Christmas wishes.

The platform makes it easier for families to take part and helps the Fund's team organise and process letters, as well as coordinate gifts from donors.

The platform is already live, with the team reviewing the first letters to help more children receive the gifts they wish for this winter.

Another new addition is Dobryk the Bunny, a character representing the Fund's humanitarian aid programme. He will feature in festive activities and help make communication with children and families warmer and more engaging.

SUPPORTING CHILDREN OF HEROES IN THE UK

Children of Heroes Charity Fund took part in two international events in London focused on long-term support for children who have lost a parent due to the war and strengthening international partnerships.

At the House of Lords, the Fund’s co-founder and ambassador, Valeriia Abdall, attended the ‘Children, War and Loss’ event. She spoke about children’s needs, the importance of comprehensive support and educational visits to the UK. The event also included meetings with British organisations and families supported by the Fund, alongside an exhibition of children’s artwork.

At the Stronger Together forum, Olena Yushkova, Grants and Foundations Manager, presented the results of its collaboration with Citi. Since the start of 2026, Citi’s $150,000 contribution has funded recovery camps and socialisation programmes for 400 children and adults.

STRENGTH WITHIN YOU: PSYCHOLOGICAL RECOVERY AND SUPPORT FOR CHILDREN

From 11 to 22 October 2026, the first session of the Strength Within You psychological support and recovery programme took place in the village of Polianytsia, Ivano-Frankivsk region. It brought together 60 children aged 6 to 16.

The programme's main aim was to create a safe environment where every child could feel supported, accepted and confident in their abilities. Throughout the session, children took part in psychological support sessions, team games, art therapy and creative activities. These helped them better understand their emotions, develop self-regulation skills, manage stress and build trusting relationships with their peers.

The programme showed positive changes in participants' emotional wellbeing: children became more open, communicated more actively and demonstrated greater trust and mutual support. Specialists also identified children who require further individual psychological support.

STORY OF THE MONTH: ARTUR, 10, ZLATA, 2, AND TYMOFII, 4

In September 2025, the father of three children went missing while on a military mission. Since then, the family has been waiting for news of his whereabouts.

Their mother is raising the children on her own and looking after their daily needs. Without support from relatives, she faces financial and practical challenges while caring for children who miss their father and hope for his return.

To help the family manage everyday difficulties, Children of Heroes Charity Fund provided food parcels, nappies for the youngest child, a first aid kit and a power bank to help them stay connected during power cuts. Beyond meeting essential needs, the Fund also brought some happy moments into the children’s lives with Christmas gifts and birthday greetings.

This support helps the family manage daily challenges, meet the children’s needs and feel cared for during a difficult time.
